Qualifications for Membership:

VOTING: Any person employed as a paralegal, no less than 20 hours per week, who performs substantive legal work that requires knowledge of legal concepts and is customarily, but not exclusively, performed by a lawyer, may join the Association as a Voting Member. Said person may be retained or employed by a lawyer, law firm, government agency, court or other entity. A Voting membership requires that a paralegal's work be supervised by an attorney.

NON-VOTING: Any person who would otherwise qualify as a Voting Member as defined in Article III, Section 1, Subsection A except length of work experience is insufficient, and/or currently unemployed (for more than ninety days), and/or works less than 20 hours per week. Any paralegal who is currently not employed as a paralegal for whatever reason, but who would otherwise qualify as a Voting Member as defined, in Article III, Section 1, Subsection A, may join as a Non-Voting Member.

STUDENT: Current students enrolled in a paralegal program or other related/formal educational program in an accredited college or university may make application to the Membership Committee, and upon application being approved, and dues paid in full may become a Student Member. Student members shall not be entitled to vote.

The information contained in this application is subject to review by the Membership Committee of PAR and may be disseminated to PAR's Board of Directors.

PAR is a member association of NFPA and, by virtue of joining PAR, you are a member of NFPA. A portion of your PAR dues is sent to NFPA for your membership in NFPA, which includes your National Paralegal Reporter subscription.

Checks returned to the Treasurer for non-sufficient funds, or any other reason, will be returned to the issuer for reimbursement of the face value of the check plus any fees incurred by PAR from its financial institution. Membership will be revoked until payment of membership dues and bank charges are received.

To read the NFPA Code of Ethics, go to <http://www.paralegals.org> and click on "Positions and Issue" and "Ethics."

MEMBER CERTIFICATION: I hereby renew my membership in the Paralegal Association of Rochester, Inc. ("PAR") and certify that this Renewal Form is true and correct. I agree to be bound by the Model Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility adopted by the National Federation of Paralegal Associations, Inc. ("NFPA") and the By-Laws of PAR. I give consent to contact my supervising attorney(s) for verification or clarification of this Renewal Form.
